Inspiring the teachers of young children

We are delighted to announce that Caversham Education Institute is offering a Saturday morning professional development workshop

CREATIVE STORYTELLING FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

On: Saturday 8th September 2018 from 9.00 – 12.00
At: Windsor Park Tennis Club – 3 James Henderson Road
(opposite Glenwood Boys' High)

Who Caversham?

Caversham Education Institute is a fully accredited Non-Profit Service Provider offering two NQF level 5 qualifications and are proud that 1245 ECD teachers have already received accredited Higher Certificates and National Diplomas in ECD. We offer training in 5 regions in KwaZulu Natal and in Cape Town. We are passionate about inspiring the teachers of young children.

What is this Caversham Workshop all about?

This Saturday morning workshop is designed to empower teachers of young children to use stories effectively. The workshop includes the value of story-telling, types of stories suitable for various age groups, exciting, yet simple ideas for making aids, techniques to gain and maintain children's interest.

Who should do this workshop?

It is open to anyone who is teaching young children. No formal qualification is required. All you need is the passion to teach more effectively and the desire to better understand this important session in the Daily Programme.

What will you gain?

You will have

- A deeper understanding of the important role that stories play in children's learning
- Increased your knowledge and skills for telling stories
- The opportunity to see effective story-telling demonstrated
- A number of ideas to take and implement with children
- Hand-out with examples of stories, poems and rhymes
- A certificate of attendance
- Met other teachers and been inspired!

How much does it cost?

The course costs R 300 for the workshop and this includes notes and tea.
