Inspiring the teachers of young children

We are delighted to announce that Caversham Education Institute is offering a Saturday morning professional development workshop

OUT OF THE BOX - CREATIVE PLANNING FOR CREATIVE ACTIVITIES

On: Saturday 20th October 2018 from 9.00 – 12.00
At: Windsor Park Tennis Club – 3 James Henderson Road
(opposite Glenwood Boys' High)

Who Caversham?

Caversham Education Institute is a fully accredited Non-Profit, Section 18A Service Provider offering two NQF level 5 qualifications with 1245 accredited Higher Certificates and National Diplomas in ECD awarded. We offer training in 5 regions in KwaZulu Natal and in Cape Town. We are passionate about inspiring the teachers of young children.

What is this Caversham Workshop all about?

This Saturday morning workshop is designed to stimulate your creativity and provide many ideas for planning and implementing creative art activities with young children.

Who should do this workshop?

It is open to anyone who is teaching young children. No formal qualification is required. All you need is the passion to plan and teach more creatively and effectively.

What will you gain?

You will have

- Been inspired to 'Think out of the Box' of ways to plan creatively
- Explored using this methodology to plan and offer creative activities across the NCF Early Learning Developmental Areas in the Daily Programme
- Increased your knowledge and skills for offering drawing, painting, collage, print-making, modeling & group work to young children
- The opportunity to brain-storm and share ideas & have a number of ideas to take and implement with children
- A certificate of attendance
- Had fun!

How much does it cost?

The course costs R 300 for the workshop and this includes notes and tea.

How do I apply?
